Medical Officer.

CHANNAPATNA MUNICIPALITY.

Notice dated 24th July 1916.

Notice is hereby given that the exclusive right of collecting fees on cattle (as defined in the Bye-law) slaughtered in the Municipal slaughterhouse at Channapatna, from the 1st of October 1916 to the 30th of June 1917, will be sold by public auction by the President in the Channapatna Taluk Office at 11 A.M. on Saturday, the 26th August 1916, subject to the conditions set forth hereunder:—

1. The successful bidder will have to deposit as soon as the sale is closed an amount equal to two months' instalments (vide condition No. 5 infra) for the due performance of his contract.

2. If the deposit is not made immediately after the close of the sale, the right will be resold at the risk of the original purchaser.

3. The sale is subject to the confirmation of the Municipal Council who reserve to themselves the right of refusing the highest or any bid that may be offered without assigning reasons therefor.

4. The successful bidder will be entitled to collect a fee of annas eight on every head of cattle (as defined in the Bye-law) slaughtered in the aforesaid slaughterhouse.

5. The contract amount is payable in nine monthly instalments in advance on or before the 10th of the month for which the instalments are due.

6. If any default is made in the payment of the monthly instalment due and if the same together with the interest due thereon be not paid on or before the last day of the month, the unexpired portion of the contract will be liable to be sold at the discretion of the President. The deposit made at the time of sale will be taken towards the adjustment of the instalments due in the months of May and June 1917, provided the highest bidder has fulfilled other conditions without any breach.

7. Resales effected under condition No. 6 will be at the risk of the defaulter who will not be entitled to any gain but will be required to make good any loss that may be sustained in the resale and the same shall be recovered as an arrear of Municipal dues.

8. No remission or abatement of any instalment or compensation on any account whatever shall be claimable by the contractor.

9. The contractor is bound to carry on business in the slaughterhouse rigidly on sanitary lines and in accordance with the Bye-laws framed by the Municpal Council.

10. The contractor is also bound to keep correct account showing in detail the daily collections and expenditure and shall also grant receipts for fees collected. The accounts so kept shall be open to inspection by the Municipal authorities not below the rank of a Sanitary Inspector.

11. In the event of breach of conditions 9 and 10 the contractor will be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 25, for every infraction at the discretion of the President or Vice-President and the contract shall also be liable to be cancelled.

12. The contractor shall execute an agreement at his own expense binding himself to the above conditions.

M. SADASIVA RAO,
President.
